Readings:

Isaiah 50:4–7

Psalms 22:8–9, 17–20, 23–24

Philippians 2:6–11

Mark 14:1–15:47

Crowned with thorns, our Lord is lifted up on the Cross, where He dies as “King of the Jews.” Notice how many times He is called “king” in today’s Gospel—mostly in scorn and mockery. As we hear the long accounts of His Passion, at every turn we must remind ourselves—He suffered this cruel and unusual violence for us. He is the Suffering Servant foretold by Isaiah in today’s First Reading. He reenacts the agony described in today’s Psalm, and even dies with the first words of that Psalm on His lips (see Psalm 22:1). Listen carefully for the echoes of this Psalm throughout today’s Gospel—as Jesus is beaten, His hands and feet are pierced; as His enemies gamble for His clothes, wagging their heads, mocking His faith in God’s love, His faith that God will deliver Him.

Are we that much different from our Lord’s tormentors? Often, don’t we deny that He is King, refusing to obey His only commands that we love Him and one another? Don’t we render Him mock tribute, pay Him lip service with our half-hearted devotions? In the dark noon of Calvary, the veil in Jerusalem’s temple was torn. It was a sign that by His death Jesus destroyed forever the barrier separating us from the presence of God. He was God and yet humbled Himself to come among us, we’re reminded in today’s Epistle. And despite our repeated failures, our frailty, Jesus still humbles Himself to come to us, offering us His body and blood in the Eucharist. His enemies never understood: His kingship isn’t of this world (see John 18:36). He wants to write His law, His rule of life on our hearts and minds.

As we enter Holy Week, let us once more resolve to give Him dominion in our lives. Let us take up the cross He gives to us—and confess with all our hearts, minds, and strength that truly this is the Son of God.

Confessions at St. Rose this week: Tuesday 6:30-8:00 pm, Thursday 10-11 am Easter Flowers are an opportunity to remember and/or honor loved ones - still with us or those that have gone home to Heaven before us. If you would like to make a monetary donation toward flowers, envelopes are available in a basket behind the last pew. Please indicate whom you would like remembered/honored and include your name; place your donation envelope in the regular collection basket and we'll take care of the rest!

The parishes of St. Rose of Lima and Our Lady of Mount Carmel will begin an Extraordinary Eucharistic ministry to the homebound, those in hospitals, assisted living, nursing homes, etc. Those who are interested in this ministry must be practicing Catholics in the parishes, attend the Extraordinary Eucharist Ministry Training presented by Father Mark Horn and complete the following online Rapid City Diocesan training programs: Safe Environment; Protecting Vulnerable Adults and the Background Check. The training programs are required by the Rapid City Diocese when interacting with parishioners in this manner. Interested parishioners will be given directions for the completion of the online training.

Stations of the Cross, this week at St. Rose of Lima Parish at 3:00 pm Friday, Good Friday Service will be held at 6:30 pm at St. Rose of Lima Church in Hill City.

During the Easter season we are invited to stay with Jesus after the Holy Thursday Mass and pray in silence, reflecting on the coming events on Good Friday. We are to immerse ourselves in that visual of Jesus praying so earnestly for us His "sheep". His suffering for all mankind. At all Masses we are gifted with the Real Presence of Jesus after the consecration of the Host. From the Holy Scripture we learn how on the night after The Last Supper Jesus asked His faithful followers to stay awake while He prayed in the Garden. When He found them asleep the first time He asked them "What? Could you not watch with me one hour?" (Matthew 26:40) There will be 10, 30 min time slots available, 7:30pm-12:00am, at the Vigil following Holy Thursday Mass. Please consider staying present with Jesus, for at least 30 minutes if not 1 hour, as He has faithfully stayed Present with us all these years in the Most Holy Eucharist. Before March 20th volunteer parish members will call all who have participated in Adoration of our Lord since January of 2022. If you do not get a call, to sign up by the 20th, contact Marie Askew (call, text or email) at 605-872-1519.
