Readings:

Acts 10:34, 37-43
Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23
Colossians 3:1-4
John 20:1-9

The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days (see Jonah 1:17). Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile (see Hosea 6:2). Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the netherworld (see Psalm 16:9-10).

Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word—"tomb."

What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do—raised Him up on the third day (see Mark 9:31; 10:34).

What they saw and believed they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels—from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree (see Deuteronomy 21:22-23), to His rising from the dead.

We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Epistle says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week—to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come—when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory." Reflection by Dr. Scott Hahn

Parish Community Opportunity

HOPE (Hearing Other People's Experience) –

Spend an evening sharing food, fellowship, faith and prayer. Come enjoy a shared meal together (potluck style) and spend time getting to know other parishioners. Then hear an encouraging message from one of the members of how God has/is working in their lives and end the evening spending time lifting our prayers to the Lord. Questions can be directed to Brett (701) 390-6630 or Danielle Eckert (701) 720-7582

Generations of Faith

Wednesday April 3rd @ 5:30 p.m.

A parish and family-based form of passing on our cherished Catholic faith from one generation to the next. We desire that our entire families, together with the entire parish family, know Jesus Christ and His love for us. When that happens, we want to share that with everyone we know, beginning in our homes. Come join us this Wednesday, April 3rd. The theme will be St. Margaret Mary Alacoque; The Eucharist and the Atheist Writer Andre Frossard.

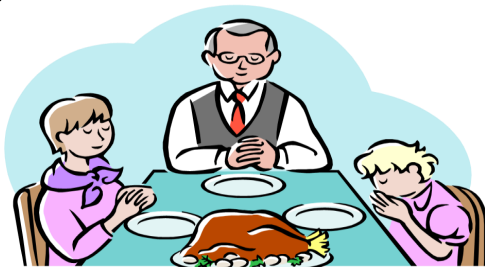

5:30 - 6:00: Meal at Parish Hall

6:15 - Lesson on Saints & Eucharistic Miracles

6:45 - 7:00: Eucharistic Adoration as a Parish

Everyone goes home, with stomachs full of food, souls full of Christ, and no need to cook or wash dishes!

*Happy Easter

Messy Families Group

Raising a family has always been hard work. Are you trying to raise your family to grow in holiness but could use extra support and encouragement? You are not alone. Join with other families that desire to raise their family in the faith.

Meeting once a month at the Parish Hall, following 10:00 am Mass. Need not be perfect to attend. Gatherings consist of a shared meal (potluck style), fellowship and socialization, a discussion amongst families on a specific topic of the month, and a time of prayer together. Please contact Brett (701) 390-6630 or Danielle (701) 720-7582 if interested.

Confessions at St. Rose this week: Tuesday 6:30-8:00 pm, Thursday 10-11 am & 6:30—9:00 p.m., Saturday 3:30—4:30 p.m.

The parishes of St. Rose of Lima and Our Lady of Mount Carmel will begin an Extraordinary Eucharistic ministry to the homebound, those in hospitals, assisted living, nursing homes, etc. Those who are interested in this ministry must be practicing Catholics in the parishes, attend the Extraordinary Eucharist Ministry Training presented by Father Mark Horn and complete the following online Rapid City Diocesan training programs: Safe Environment; Protecting Vulnerable Adults and the Background Check. The training programs are required by the Rapid City Diocese when interacting with parishioners in this manner. Interested parishioners will be given directions for the completion of the online training.
