Take Up Your Cross

By Robert Kinyon

Jesus' words in the Gospel today come with a tremendous shock value. He tells us clearly that discipleship is not easy. Christ demands everything. Whatever is holding us back from Him—whatever it is—must go. The cost of discipleship is immense.

This costly calling culminates in our willing acceptance of our own crosses. "Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." There is no shortage of hardships within our lives. In many ways, life is rife with suffering. But for the Christian, suffering never has to have the last word. We have the opportunity to conceptualize and personally embrace our suffering as a cross. Such a decision is, no doubt, difficult. It requires that I surrender my propensity to demonize others, harbor unforgiveness, and justify my own shortcomings. Some of time, it might demand that I cut-off toxic relationships that lead me down a road other than that of the cross. True discipleship requires that we let go of everything that keeps us from God and use those empty hands to embrace our cross.

As we carry our crosses, we must not forget that we are never doing it alone. As difficult as the way of the cross is, it is always sustained by a divine energy. Christ does not call us to go anywhere that He has not already gone. Remember: He tells us to take up our crosses and follow after him. He has already taken the world's suffering upon Himself thereby allowing our suffering to serve as a portal to Him. Saint Paul says, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?... No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us."

Such a grace-filled forbearance will not go unrewarded. The cost of discipleship is only immense because its reward is infinite. The way of the cross has opened up paradise. Let us walk that way this week behind our Savior.

The Cor ad Cor retreat is a weekly small group gathering of all men or all women to learn more about the spiritual life, to grow in relationship and conversation with the Lord, and to share faith and the work of the Lord with others. The retreat begins with the Oremus program from Ascension Press (8 weeks) and then moves into the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola according to the 19th annotation (additional 22 weeks). Small groups of about six people meet weekly with a trained leader for these 30 weeks. Small groups gather each week to learn and talk about the life of prayer and what the Lord is doing in them. Registration is now open, and each small group only contains eight retreatants. Register soon as groups fill up quickly! The Hill City Senior Citizens, in conjunction with the American Legion, are once again sponsoring the Christmas Gift Shop for Veterans which is an opportunity for veterans in the VA Hospital and the State Veterans' Home in Hot Springs to send gifts to members of their family at Christmas. NEW articles are collected and are taken to the veteran facilities in Hot Springs. Gift shops are set up there and residents of both facilities individually choose gifts for their families and loved ones. With volunteer assistance, these articles are wrapped and distributed or mailed at no expense to the veteran.

Some items may also be gifted to the veterans themselves who do not regularly have visitors or receive gifts. Clothing, books, toys, games, and household goods are all good gifts. Please do NOT send makeup or perfume. Gift cards redeemable at national chains are accepted and make excellent gifts that are easy to mail. Handmade items are always appreciated. Gift wrap and cards are also always appreciated. Donations of cash may also be sent and are used for postage or to purchase additional gifts. Last year our generous community sent 577 gifts valued at over $7,000 as well as $78 worth of wrapping supplies.

Please remember that many gifts must be mailed, so please do NOT choose heavy, bulky, or glass items. Articles should be NEW but not too expensive. They should be something that you yourself would give as a gift or like to receive. Since we are asked to list the value of gifts, please leave any price tags attached (they are removed before gifts are sent to Hot Springs). Hill City and other area residents, businesses and the American Legion have been wonderful in their support of this project. Gifts may be dropped off at the Hill City Center, in the marked boxes at Community Lutheran Church, Little White Church and St. Rose of Lima. Gifts will be collected until Monday, October 17, when they will be organized to reach Hot Springs in time for the Christmas Gift Shop. Volunteers in Hot Springs will help the veterans choose, wrap and send gifts beginning in early November. Should you have questions or need items picked up, please call Pat Forrer at 605-939-8354 or Mary Walton at the Hill City Center 605-574-3211.
